Detailed Introduction

Wotian is a specialized soft vinyl toy manufacturing factory within our in-house manufacturing network, with more than 15 years of product manufacturing experience. Located in Dongguan, China, the factory covers approximately 8,000 m² and has around 300 employees, with integrated capabilities covering product development, engineering, manufacturing, finishing, quality control, and packaging.

We provide B2B OEM/ODM custom manufacturing support for original designs and licensed projects. Our production process covers 2D and 3D design, prototype development, tooling, molding, grinding and finishing, rotocasting, coloring, pad printing, assembly, quality control, packaging, and mass production.

Our soft vinyl manufacturing capabilities support a wide range of products, including character figures, designer toys, soft vinyl collectibles, mixed-material products, and large-scale collectibles. Through coordinated manufacturing capabilities within our production network, we can also support the production of rubber components and other customized toy components when required by a project.

The factory has established a complete production and quality management system and has obtained BSCI, FAMA, ISO, and GSV certifications. We have provided manufacturing services for well-known companies and IP-related clients, including TAITO, SEGA, SQUARE ENIX, CAPCOM, Aniplex, SANRIO, Bushiroad, and others.

We are committed to providing reliable manufacturing capabilities and consistent product quality for professional clients, while continuously improving our production technology, equipment, and quality management systems.

We will promote our soft vinyl toy manufacturing capabilities to customers worldwide through the MIHOX official website.

We sincerely welcome brands, IP owners, designers, artists, distributors, and other professional clients from around the world to discuss soft vinyl projects with us through video meetings and explore opportunities for cooperation.
